PRAISE

Ami Atkinson Combs / Director, PNDC
"Stunningly gorgeous, Paula! Your extraordinary artistic talent combined with deep presence in the moment allowed you to channel our time together into a visual distillation of the group's experience. The sketch journal is an incredible gift that brings it all back in living color!!!"

see more kudos...

Paula's praise includes top international awards for her skill of finding "brand heart" as Ad Agency Creative Director, and featured on TV, radio, on-line, and as guest speaker with her book "Fur Shui".

IN-JOY: WAKING UP YOUR SOUL STORY

PICTURE YOUR STORY | ILLUSTRATION & FINE ART

Paula Brown's life story forged her belief that your story; your unique gift, is wrapped up inside your heart. Your gift or purpose is simply waiting to be unwrapped, to be seen in clear picture. Paula has the intuitive gift to find and put into picture heart stories, to unwrap, show and make visible what is inside each heart's gift. She helps leaders unwrap their gifts to get unstuck from "story invisibility". She is a Heartist: an intuitive essence fine artist /purpose coach, author and speaker. Leaders hire Paula to literally and figuratively draw out their true story. She puts into picture the heartbeat of their "inside story", big ideas, teachings, purpose, nature, and vision, so they can lead from their REAL heart gifts. Her picture-storytelling intuitively pulls the extraordinary from the ordinary, giving her clients the ability to clearly and quickly communicate their stories from the "inside out". Paula's best-selling book "Fur Shui. An Introduction to Animal Feng Shui™." (US, Canada, UK, translated to Italian) shines her intuitive gifts; blue sky questing in and beyond the visible world.

PAULA'S MOST POPULAR MEDIA TOPICS INCLUDE:

Why your heart is smarter than your mind. Speaking from your heart, and feeling from your mind, is the smartest logic for effective on-purpose leadership in life and business.

Value add for audience: Share your and your partner's "Ah-Ha" stories via picture-storytelling. Showing and leading from "true heart values" is a game changer, you become REAL and approachable by picture sharing the gifts of your story. Put the heartbeat back into your business with a "illuminated clear story" that ignites "inside out" communications, lifts, and motivates, teams and cultures.

Tear off your story's Cloak of Invisibility. Not being able to communicate (or worse yet not know!) visions, goals, ideas, or values is the land of invisible "stuck" for leaders and entrepreneurs.

Value add for audience: Illustrating your story removes the Cloak of Invisibility made from misunderstandings, false assumptions, and complex communications. Be seen and get free from the pain of your gifts not being understood. Communicate easily and clearly with the universal language of pictures that shine the spotlight directly from the heart of your story.

MORE PRAISE!

"Here's what you should know about working with Paula Brown:

With Paula, you don't get a wrist.
You get a brain.

She's quick on the uptake. Groks the content. Has great marketing instincts.
Knows what a presenter needs—and nails it the first time.

Project after project, Paula has translated torrents of my (often non-linear) words into clear, clean images that communicated complex ideas powerfully.
She's fast and she's smart.

Do yourself a favor and hire her."

David Morgenstern / President and Creative Director
The Morgenstern Company, Inc.

"I recently hired Paula to create an artistic rendition of a 4-day "Transform Your Life" retreat, I was hosting in Kona, Hawaii. Working with Paula was a magical experience for many reasons including the fact that she is extremely talented in her ability to create stunning, and powerful visual stories, after listening to spoken words in a group setting. Additionally, she helped me to chronicle an experience on paper for myself, and all retreat participants, to remember forever. I would strongly recommend Paula to anyone who is wanting to bring their events to a higher, and more meaningful level. It is a privilege to work with her!"

BONUS TOPIC

The Advantage of talking from the heart of your nature to nature itself. Ignite profound change and ideas by hearing the "Heart talk" story from nature, animals and your home! "Vision Questing" goes beyond mere pictures to find the "invisible energies" that bring us together. Share beneficial ancient intuitive tools of direct heart communications with animals and nature, feng shui (Black Hat), and indirect methods of Hawaiian shamanic healing (Huna).

Value add for audience:

Spark lively story conversations of surprising and synchronistic everyday-miracles. Expand and encourage trust, growth, and confidence applying the intuitive heart tools we were born to use.
